Words from our partners

We were very glad to hear of the positive impact Healthy Northeast Ohio has had on your agencies. Please see some of the statements from partners below:

“The Healthy Northeast Ohio website is a tremendous resource for various community stakeholders. The availability of wide breadth of data – in a single location – will make researching information for future Community Health Needs Assessments easier and less time consuming. Likewise, the availability of data will enable organizations to provide sound foundations for programs and service alignment, as well as for grant requests to fund those programs and services.” -Ashtabula County Medical Center

“University Hospitals is invested in the collaborative community health effort underway in Northeast Ohio. This entails working with the other hospital systems and public health departments in our geographical footprint to sustain periodic community health assessments and aligned improvement planning. The Healthy NEO website on the Conduent data platform is an excellent technological innovation that aids in this work. It is a useful tool to centralize relevant data that coincides with our implementation strategies and makes it easier to measure the impact of our collective effort. Additionally, it allows us to customize reports, explore grant opportunities and share best practices. This platform revolutionizes the partners’ ability to identify and monitor shared indicators and population health impact and helps us tell our story in a user-friendly dashboard. Equally as important, Healthy NEO has many features that are accessible to the general public. HealthyNEO.org is an asset to our region.” – University Hospitals

Thank you to all of our partners for your continuous support and participation in Healthy Northeast Ohio. We greatly appreciate all of our partners and the commitment you have shown to improving health in your communities!
